Has my gal been by here, you know she's gone and I can't tell where
Has my gal been by here?

Well, she ain't so tall, she ain't so low, she cuts her stuff everywhere she goes
She's like the kind that you love like this, she'll make you do things you can't resist

She got this, she got that, she got something that'll knock you flat
Has my gal been by here? (Oh, where's she been?)

Solos (A part, A part, B part, A part)

Has my gal been by here, you know she's gone and I can't tell where
Has my gal been by here?

She got little bitty feet, ain't gonna tell no lie, when she smiles she'll make a man goo-goo eye
Rouge on her face, paint on her lips, you outta see my gal when she shakes those hips

She got knees, she got toes, she got something make your blood run cold
Has my gal been by here?
Has my gal been by here?
